About the University

Alagappa University has emerged from the galaxy of institutions initially founded during 1950`s by the Padma Bhushan Dr. RM. Alagappa Chettiar (06.04.1909 - 05.04.1957). Alagappa University is a State Government University established by an Act of the Tamil Nadu State Legislature in 1985 as Unitary type; later became Affiliating type during 2002. The University is situated at Karaikudi (in 420 acre lush green campus), in the District of Sivaganga, in the State of Tamil Nadu. Alagappa University was brought into existence by a Special Act of the Government of Tamil Nadu in May 1985 with the objective of fostering research, development and dissemination of knowledge in various branches of learning. Alagappa University is recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) of India. The University has 49 Departments, 9 Centres and 2 Constituent Colleges on its campus. 46 Colleges located in the districts of Sivaganga and Ramanathapuram are Affiliated to the University. The University is offering UG & PG programmes in the four Faculties (Arts, Science, Education, Management). The University offers education through Regular, Distance, Online and Collaborative modes. Through all modes of education, the University caters to the needs of the student community of around 1.12 lakhs. The University is having International Collaborations with Universities / Institutions of Higher Learning in countries like U.S.A, UK, Australia, Singapore, China, Malaysia and South Korea. The University's motto is "Excellence in Action" and the University keeps before it the vision of excellence in all spheres of its action.

About the Department

The Department of Geology was established in 2017 offering PG and Research programmes. Presently the department has intake capacity of 25 and runs the choice based credit system of M.Sc. Applied Geology Programme since 2016. The department faculty members are specialised in different areas of Geology such as Sedimentary Petrology, Geomorphology, Hydrogeology, Geochemistry, Structural Geology, Quaternary Palaeoclimate, Micropaleontology, RemoteSensing and GIS. The faculty members are actively engaged in research in these thrust areas. To produce future Geologists and Geo-scientists with academic excellence. The curriculum includes contents from syllabus of various competitive examinations such as CSIR NET, GATE, TNSET, UPSC, TNPSC and ONGC. It also includes recent innovations and practices adopted by the industry especially in the fields of Petroleum Exploration, Geo-technical, Energy and Mineral Exploration. The curriculum of M.Sc., Applied Geology Programme contains extensive Field work, Geological mapping, Mine visits and it is designed in such a way that it is easier for the students to adapt in the role of Professional Geologists and Geo-scientists.

About the Symposium

The International Symposium on Recent Trends in Geological Sciences is a pivotal forum for global experts to share advancements in geological research. Covering diverse topics, from geological processes to recent application, symposium facilitates discussions and international collaboration. It serves as a dynamic platform for gaining insights into the latest trends and discoveries in the field.
