ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Alagappa University has emerged from the galaxy of institutions initially founded by the great philanthropist and educationist Dr. RM. Alagappa Chettiar in the year 1985 at Karaikudi. The University is re-accredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC. New innovative courses of social relevance are being offered by the University through regular and distance modes. The University's motto is "Excellence in Action" and the University keeps before it the vision of excellence in all spheres of its action.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Alagappa University has established the Department of Bioelectronics and Biosensors in the year 2008. The department is engaged in the design and development of biosensors devices for applications in various fields of sciences that include medical, environmental and agricultural. The major scope of this department is to innovate in the biosensing process and devices for the fast, sensitive and selective evaluation of clinical, biological, environmental and biowarfare analytes.The department offers M.Sc. and Ph.D. programmes in the field of Bioelectronics and Biosensors.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Emergence of new nanomaterilas and technology lead the development of novel and simple sensor devices for different applications. Developing simpler, faster and miniaturized devices for a variety of applications including medical, biological and environmental monitoring require the interface between engineering, materials science, medicine, chemistry, biology and physics disciplines. Many materials such as nano metals, metal oxides, conducting polymers, carbon structures and quantum dots are being used for the development of much needed simple and faster sensing devices. However, much remains to be done to improve the sensing applications and to reduce the cost of production for efficient utilization of these devices. The topics to be covered are the preparation, characterization and applications of nano materials, biomaterials, carbon nanotubes, metal and metal oxide nano structures of current interest. Hence, this conference can provide a platform for skilled professionals, researchers scientists and students to meet and exchange information on the latest developments in this field. The conference will include plenary and invited lectures from eminent persons and student researchers.
