It is to ignore one of the most powerful forces that influence people. Nationalism is essentially the memory of part achievements, traditions and experiences and nationalism is stronger today than it has ever been. Many people thought that nationalism had its day and must inevitably give place to ever – growing international tendencies of the modern world. Trade and commerce, easy communications and rapid transport. The radio and cinema, all helped to create an international atmosphere and to produce the delusion that nationalism was doomed. Yet whenever a crisis has arises, nationalism has emerged again and dominated the scene and people have sought comfort and strength in their old traditions.

memory of part achievements, traditions and experiences and nationalism is stronger today than it has ever been. Many people thought that nationalism had its day and must inevitably give place to ever – growing international tendencies of the modern world. Trade and commerce, easy communications and rapid transport. The radio and cinema, all helped to create an international atmosphere and to produce the delusion that nationalism was doomed. Yet whenever a crisis has arises, nationalism has emerged again and dominated the scene and people have sought comfort and strength in their old traditions.
