Date : 19.03.2018

Under the auspices of the Centre for Yoga Education, Alagappa University, Karaikudi, a National Level Yoga Championship 2018 was conducted on 18.03.2018 at the University Yoga Centre. 750 participants from Tamil Nadu, Pondicherry, West Bengal, Haryana, Kerala and Karnataka took part in the competition. The competitors were divided into 9 age-wise groups with three divisions viz. Common, Special and Championship categories.

The competition was inaugurated by Prof. H. Gurumallesh Prabu, Registrar, Alagappa University. Mr. A. Padmanaban, International Yoga Expert, Ramnathapuram, Kalaimamani Dr. P. Baskaran, Yoga Instructor and Yogam R. Sivagami, National Jury, offered felicitations.

In the valedictory function, Prof. S. Subbiah, Vice-Chancellor, Alagappa University, distributed the certificates and medals to the winners. In his valedictory address, he said that Alagappa University Centre for Yoga Education was constructed at a cost of Rs.65 lakhs for the benefit of students and public. He added that it was, indeed, a great occasion at the University in which 750 people of different age-groups enthusiastically participated from various parts of the country and showed their feat. He stated that by learning yoga, one could keep his body and mind in a very healthy condition. It not only provides strength to the mind and body of the yoga practitioner, but also helps him feel emotionally stable and socially adjustable. Yoga has become a part of education today. Yoga helps one to lead a happy and contented life, he added.

Prof. V. Balachandran, Special Officer (P&D), Alagappa University and Mr. G. Mariappan, General Secretary, Tamil Nadu Yoga Sports Development Association, offered felicitations.
