ALAGAPPA UNIVERSITY

Alagappa University, a classic example of inclusive higher education institution was established in the year 1985. Located on a sprawling campus of about 420 acres and recognized by the University Grants Commission, Alagappa University is a member of the Association of Commonwealth Universities and Association of Indian Universities. With 'Excellence in Action' as its motto in terms of infrastructure, number of competent teaching and administrative staff members and enrolment of students, the University has been making impressive strides. The campus is easily accessible from Tiruchirappalli and Madurai in about two hours by road or rail. It is a matter of pride indeed that the University has been re-accredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC. As per the recent rating by the 'Times of India' Alagappa University has been ranked as one of the top 50 Universities in India.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of English and Foreign languages within a very short period of its establishment has been serving the five-fold objectives of higher education "PEARL" (Pedagogy, Extension, Application, Research and Learning).

The Department offers Post-Graduate, Post-Masters and Doctoral Research Programmes. It also offers Certificate Courses in French and German languages. Opportunities to acquire fellowships from different funding agencies such as the MHRD, the UGC, Jawaharlal Nehru Memorial Fund, and IGNOU have been provided for research scholars. Further, the Department has opened fresh avenues for developing language skill through well-equipped English and Foreign languages laboratories. This Department had the pride of attracting students from China within a short duration of its creation.

OBJECTIVES

The main objective of organizing National Conference on World Poetry: Ancient and Modern is to mark the World Poetry Day.The Specific objectives are:

- To support linguistic diversity through poetic expression.
- To offer endangered languages the opportunity to be heard within their communities.
- To encourage a return to the oral tradition of poetry recitals.
- To promote the teaching of poetry, to restore a dialogue between poetry and the other arts such as theatre, dance, music and painting.
- To explore the deep wisdom embedded in poetry.

THEME OF THE CONFERENCE

World Poetry: Ancient and Modern takes us to literature without walls. The oneness in thinking minds can be traced in writers though they belong to different cultures and linguistic backgrounds. World Poetry studies under comparative lens will lead rich harvest to the academic critics, scholars and lovers of literatures. So far as they strike peaks of similarities in themes, techniques and trends paving the way to a world with no narrow nationalism but the broader perspective of internationalism. World poets are comparable to a banyan tree whose branches are taking roots on different terrafirma. Each branch represents the poetry of a particular country contributing to the growth and development of the world poetry producing poet laureates hailing from each country. This conference will serve as a helipad to lift the scholars to pastures new and fresh roots and provide a thinking forum and a platform for the battle of wits.
