ALAGAPPA UNIVERSITY

(Accredited with A+ Grade by NAAC (CGPA: 3.64) in the Third Cycle)

KARAIKUDI – 630 003

12.08.2017

Poompuhar workshop at Alagappa University

A Two Day Project finalization workshop on the ancient port city Poompuhar was convened at Alagappa University on 11-12, August 2017 under the sponsorship of Department of Science and Technology, New Delhi. The said meeting was attended by over 30 academicians and researchers from different universities and national research institutions.

The meeting was started with a formal inaugural function, in which Prof.SM.Ramasamy, Distinguished Professor, Alagappa University and the project Co- ordinator , in his welcome address, has explained the scientific concepts and the work envisioned in the project, which is aimed at bringing out the total life history of Poompuhar encompassing the age and initial place of origin and the later shift ; it's social, cultural, trade links, and architectural evolution over centuries and combinations of reasons and periods of defunct of this glorious city, from the underwater un manned seabed topographical survey, underwater photography, geophysical survey, drilling in the sea bed and dating of Poompuhar's spread; study of archaeological, epigraphical, tamil literature and historical data; impact of earth movements, migration of Cauvery river, visualization of flood, tsunami, storm surge, cyclones and coastal erosion and sedimentation during the last 20,000 years and its impact over the defunct of Poompuhar and the digital reconstruction of the life history of Poompuhar and computer based animation models.

Prof.SM.Ramasamy said it will not only bring out the socio- cultural-architectural history of Poompuhar but also the old geodynamic processes and the palaeo disasters from which futuristic developmental planning can be done.

Prof.H.Gurumallesh Prabu, Controller of Examinations, Alagappa University who inaugurated the workshop, has explained the significance of Pooompuhar project and it is befitting that the Alagappa University, which is carrying out cutting edge research in different areas of science, social science ,education and management, is taking up this interesting and major research project.

Dr.K.R Murali Mohan, Advisor / Head, ICPS Division, Department of Science and Technology (DST), New Delhi highlighted the activities of DST in the areas of digital heritage . The inaugural function was followed by detailed presentations by various researchers from different organizations and after, detailed discussions , the project has been evolved and would be conducted with Alagappa University as the lead agency and Prof.SM.Ramasamy, Distinguished Professor, as Co-ordinator.

Registrar i/c.

Dr. V. Balachandran.

 Note: Sir, if you want more details about this workshop, please contact Prof.SM.Ramasamy in his Mobile No. 94433 52543