6th National Symposium cum Workshop on "Recent Trends in Structural Bioinformatics and Computer Aided Drug Design" [SBCADD'2014]

18th-21st February, 2014

Venue : L.C.T.L. Palaniappa Chettiar Memorial Auditorium & Department of Bioinformatics

THEME

The SBCADD'2014 brings together researchers from all over the India to strengthen the connections in all fields of Bioinformatics. The exchange will focus on progressive advances in the field of Structural Bioinformatics and Molecular Modeling. New challenges are emerging today in these fields with the recent advances. Nonetheless, more different strategies and protocols are still required to improve computing with massive biological and biomedical data. The Symposium is being organized from 18th to 21st February 2014. The four day event will feature key note lectures, poster presentation and workshop for number of scientists and academicians dealing with basic science and translational research. Participation at SBCADD'2014 will be the prime opportunity to keep pace with the cutting-edge research in such exciting topics and to network with other members of our community. We cordially invite you to submit your paper, poster and participate in symposium cum workshop.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Alagappa University was founded by the great philanthropist and educationist Padma Bhushan Dr. R.M. Alagappa Chettiar in 1985 at Karaikudi, Tamilnadu, India. Alagappa University is recognized by the UGC, Government of India and was accredited with "A" grade by NAAC. Wide shredded 440 acres green campus with all potential academic activities. The post graduate and research departments in Science, Humanities and other disciplines in the Alagappa University offer more novel and innovative programmes through regular, distance & e-learning mode. Alagappa University educates nearly 0.1 million students every year especially in the rural and backward areas of Tamil Nadu. The motto of Alagappa University is to develop leadership in various disciplines through "EXCELLENCE IN ACTION".

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

Department of Bioinformatics was started in the year 2008, to facilitate the teaching and research in the interdisciplinary areas of Structural Biology, Structural Bioinformatics, Cheminformatics, Genomics and Proteomics to create an intellectual environment for interdisciplinary education and training. The department comprises of well experienced faculty members with research interest and expertise in X-ray Crystallography, Molecular Modeling and Computer-Aided Drug Design, Marine Biotechnology and Pharmacogenomics. Main research of the department focuses on computational and experimental techniques to study the interaction of small molecules with proteins and nucleic acids and to characterize their molecular mechanism towards the novel drug discovery for human diseases. Dynamic environment at department is the core for students to gain experience in Bioinformatics related fields through academic, industrial rotations and internship programs. The department has received research grants from various funding agencies like DBT, DST, CSIR, UGC, New Delhi and TNSCST, Tamil Nadu. Department of Bioinformatics is offering a two year M.Sc., one year M.Phil., Ph.D programme in Bioinformatics and one year UGC sponsored P.G. Diploma in Structural Pharmacogenomics.
