Ph.D. (Bank Management):

Program objectives

- To widen the research horizons in the field of banking and insurance.
- To encourage practitioners to undertake higher order level of research so as to solve the practical problems of the industry.
- To build strong linkages with the industry.
- To enable the researchers to develop innovative business strategies through research.

A) Eligibility

- Post Graduate in Commerce/ International Business / Business Administration / Banking Management / Corporate Secretary ship/Banking and Insurance / Economics / Agriculture Economics /Cooperation /Foreign Trade / Any related discipline.
- Any Degree with ACA/FCA
- Any Degree with Grad CWA/ AICWA / FICWA
- Any Degree with ACS/FCS
- Any PG Degree with CAIIB

(B) Post Graduate Qualifying Degree Marks

- 50% of Marks for those who got P.G. degree prior to 1-1-1991.
- 50% of Marks for SC/ST/Physically or visually challenged candidates
- 55% of Marks –For all others

(C) Clearing the Pre - registration Ph.D.Program Eligibility Entrance Examination

(D) NET (JRF as well as Lectureship)/SET & GATE qualified candidates shall alone be exempted from clearing the Pre-Registration PhD Program Entrance Examination

Selection Procedure

A candidate eligible must take up Pre - registration Ph.D.Program Eligibility Entrance Examination and appear for the viva-voce exam. Programme structure:

Programme structure

	Duration
MINIMUM	M.Phil. Degree Holders:	P.G. Degree Holders:
	Full Time – 2 years	Full Time – 3 years
	Part Time – 3 years	Part Time – 4 years
MAXIMUM	Up to five years from the date of registration

- Research proposal to be vetted by the Doctorial Research Committee.
- Course work on Research Methodology and Two courses on the relevant disciplines for PG Degree holders.
- Course work on Research Methodology and Two courses on the relevant disciplines for M.Phil Degree holders.
- Progress of work to be presented before the Doctorial Research Committee.
- Publication of one research paper from the doctorial work.