KARAIKUDI

Date : 13.03.2018

Students and Research Scholars of the Department of Commerce, Alagappa University, Karaikudi, organized a National Conference on "Pride of Commerce" on 13.3.2018 at the LCTL Palaniappa Chettiar Memorial Auditorium.

Prof. S. Subbiah, Vice-Chancellor, Alagappa University, in his presidential address stated that happiness is more important than money. He stated that life is not measured by years, we live, but it is measured, based on how many days we live in serenity with happiness. Businessmen should be optimistic in all spheres of their business ventures. They should concentrate on providing good services to the customers. Customer satisfaction must be the first priority in business. Unless customers are satisfied, there is no meaning in doing business, he added. In educational institutions, all stakeholders should be satisfied with appropriate plan of action. A country's prosperity is measured based on the development of trade and commerce. He emphasized the importance of students' participation in developing entrepreneurial culture and development of entrepreneurial ventures in the University campus. He congratulated the students and scholars for organizing this national conference on their own efforts and for making it a complete students' affair.

Dr. N. Thanulingam, Formerly Professor and Head, Department of Commerce, Madurai Kamaraj University, highlighted the importance of women entrepreneurship for the empowerment of rural women and explained the importance of services sector for the economic development of a country. He traced the history and development of Commerce Curriculum over a period of time in India.
