Date : 15.03.2018

An MoU between Alagappa University, India, and Ming Chi University of Technology, Taiwan, was signed on 14.03.18 here at Alagappa University for the purpose of furthering cooperation in the areas of research and also for promoting academic exchanges of mutual benefit.

The agreement is to facilitate and develop a genuine and mutually beneficial process for the teaching and research collaboration between the two institutions. The agreement will be valid for 5 years

The agreement would pave the way for the development of mutually beneficial research training programmes, exchange of students for the purpose of studying and faculty for the purpose of seminar/teaching, research and extension. Reciprocal assistance for visiting faculty, researchers, and students would be provided by the collaborative partners. It also paves the way for submission of joint research proposals and transfer of technology. Short-term training programmes for teachers and students in each other's country would be conducted. It would help in organizing seminars /conferences / workshops / symposia on the areas of mutual interest, which will benefit both the partner institutions.
