ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Social Work Programme was started by the Department of Women's Studies, Alagappa University in the academic year 2006-2007 and now a separate Department of Social work functions from the academic year 2016- 2017 .The Department of Social Work endeavours to promote a peaceful and inclusive social order through professional social work education and practice thereby its mission is to prepare students to become generalist social work professionals by enhancing their commitment to democracy, peace, human rights, people's empowerment, social justice, and human diversity.As part of educational experience, the programme provides students with opportunities to develop appropriate attitudes, skills and critical perspectives imbued with spirituality in providing services in the public, corporate, non-profit development sectors and civil society.

The students will be equipped to work with diverse & vulnerable group of people, execute a range of social welfare activities, and work for their continuing professional development through inclusive practice. The curriculum includes three major components such as, Theory, Fieldwork, and Research. The Department collaborates with international, national, and local organisations for field action, projects, research, and training. In addition, throughout the year several workshops, seminars, and interactive programmes are designed innovatively and organized to facilitate teaching and learning.

CONFERENCE BACKGROUND

Social work is a profession concerned with helping individuals, families, groups and communities to develop their skills and their ability to use their own resources and those of the community to resolve problems. Social work is concerned with individual and personal problems but also with broader social issues such as poverty, unemployment and domestic violence.

Social work is a practice-based profession and an academic discipline that promotes social change and development, social cohesion, and the empowerment and liberation of people. Principles of social justice, human rights, collective responsibility and respect for diversities are central to social work.

Social work profession promotes social change, problem solving in human relationships and the empowerment and liberation of people to enhance well-being. Utilizing theories of human behavior and social systems, social work intervenes at the points where people interact with their environments.

"Professional Social Work: Look beyond the Horizon" has emerged from the contemporary concerns of local to global community in the present democratic society and in consonance with social work values. The emergence of new economies, newer paradigm of information technology and significant dominance of the market economy has impacted the life and living of common people and marginalized groups, governance, services, civility and civil society, the ethics and social responsibility. This has also increased the roles and responsibility of the profession to a major extent.

The conference will provide a platform to discuss and deliberate on how the profession of social work can engage itself in achieving the above objectives. Now, where social work profession is undergoing major transformation from local to global level, this conference shall pave the way to explore newer dimensions and directions.

MAJOR THEMES OF THE CONFERENCE

1. Professional Social Work
2. Methods of Social Work and Practice Areas
3. Core Competencies
