The firm has available, at the moment, a fleet of 150 Class – A 15 – tonne trailer trucks and another fleet of 100 Class – B – 10 tonne tailer trucks. The Operating costs of these trucks are Rs. 3 and Rs. 4 per tonne per Km, respectively. Based on past experience, the firm has a policy of retaining at least one Class – A truck with every two Class – B trucks is reserve. It is desired to know how many of these two Classes of vehicles should be dispatched to move the material at minimal operating costs. Formulate this problem as an LP Model.

10. A,B and C started a business with Rs. 25,000 Rs. 16,000 and Rs. 12,000 capitals respectively. After 5 months A withdrew Rs. 5,000 from his capital. Three months later B and C added Rs. 7,000 and Rs. 14,000 to their capitals respectively. Find the share of each in the annual profit of Rs. 6,850.

11. A company wants to produce three products A,B and C. The per unit profit on these product is Rs. 4, Rs. 6 and Rs. 2 respectively. These products requires two types of resources, manpower and raw material. The LP model formulated for determining the optimal product mix is as follows.

Maximize : $z = 4x_1 + 6x_2 + 2x_3$

Subject to the constraints

(a) $x_1 + x_2 + x_3 \leq 3$ (man power required)

(b) $x_1 + 4x_2 + 7x_3 \leq 9$ (Raw material available) and $x_1, x_2, x_3 \geq 0$ where x_1, x_2 and x_3 = number of units of Products A, B and C respectively to be produced.

(i) Find the optimal product mix and the corresponding profit of the company.

(ii) Find the range of the profit contribution of product C (i.e., coefficient C_3 of variable x_3) in the objective function, such that the current optimal product mix remains unchanged.

14. A Bakery keeps stock of a popular brand of cake. Previous experience shows the daily demand pattern for the item with associated probabilities, as given below :

Daily demand (number) :	0	10	20	30	40	50
Probability :	0.01	0.20	0.15	0.50	0.12	0.02

Use the following sequence of random numbers to simulate the demand for next 10 days.

Random numbers : 25, 39, 65, 76, 12, 05, 73, 89, 19, 49.

Also estimate the daily average demand for the cakes on the basis of the simulated data.

15. A book store wishes to carry a particular book in stock. The demand of the book is not certain and there is a lead time of 2 days for stock replenishment. The probabilities of demand are given below.

Demand :	0	1	2	3	4
Probability :	0.05	0.10	0.30	0.45	0.10

Each time an order is placed, the store incurs an ordering cost of Rs. 10 per order. The store also incurs a carrying cost of Rs. 0.5 per book per day. The inventory carrying cost is calculated on the basis of stock at the end of each day. The manager of the book store wishes to compare two options for his inventory decision.

(A) Order 5 books when the present inventory plus any outstanding order falls below 8 books

(B) Order 8 books when the present inventory plus any outstanding order falls below 8 books.

Currently (beginning of 1st day) the store has a stock of 8 books plus 8 books ordered two days ago and are expected to arrive the next day. Carryout simulation sum for 10 days to recommend an appropriate option. You may use random numbers in the sequences, using the first number for day one.
